Notice of privacy Practices

As required by the privacy regulations created as a result of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPPA).

This notice describes how health information about you (as a client at EnSite) may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to your individually identifiable health information.

A. Our commitment to your privacy:

Our practice is dedicated to maintaining the privacy of your individually identifiable health information (also called protected health information, or PHI). In conducting our business, we will create records regarding you and the treatment and services we provide to you. We are required by law to maintain the confidentiality of health information that identifies you. We also are required by law to provide you with this notice of our legal duties and the privacy practices that we maintain in our practices concerning your PHI. By federal and state law, we must follow the terms of the Notice of Privacy Practices that we have in effect at the time.

We realize that these laws are complicated, but we must provide you with the following important information:

- How we may use and disclose your PHI
- Your privacy rights in your PHI
- Our obligations concerning the use and disclosure of your PHI

The terms of this notice apply to all records containing your PHI that are created or retained by our practice. We reserve the right to revise or amend this Notice of Privacy Practices. Any revision or amendment to this notice will be effective for all your records that our practice has created or maintained in the past, and for any of your records that we may create or maintain in the future. Our practice will post a copy of our current Notice in our offices in a visible location at all time, and you may request a copy of our most current Notice at any time.

B. If you have questions about this Notice, please contact EnSite 270-443-1201

C. We may use and disclose your PHI in the following ways:

The following categories describe the different ways in which we may use and disclose your PHI.

1. Treatment: Our practice may use your PHI to treat you.
2. Payment: Our practice may use and disclose your PHI in order to bill and collect payment for the services and items you may receive from us.
3. Health care operations: Our practice may use and disclose your PHI to operate our business.
4. Optional Appointment reminders: Our practice may use and disclose your PHI to contact you and remind you of an appointment.
5. Optional Treatment options: Our practice may use and disclose your PHI to inform you of potential treatment options or alternatives.
6. Disclosures required by law: Our practice will use and disclose your PHI when we are required to do so by federal, state, or local law.

D. Use and disclosure of your PHI in certain circumstances:

The following categories describe unique scenarios in which we may use or disclose your identifiable health information:

1. Public health risks: Our practice may disclose your PHI to public health authorities that are authorized by law to collect information for the purpose of:
  - Maintaining vital records, such as births and deaths,
  - Reporting child abuse or neglect,
  - Preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability,
  - Notifying a person regarding potential exposure to a communicable disease,
  - Notifying a person regarding a potential risk for spreading or contracting a disease or condition,
  - Notifying appropriate government agency(ies) and authority(ies) regarding the potential abuse or neglect of an adult patient (including domestic violence); however, we will only disclose this information if the patient agrees or we are required or authorized by law to disclose this information.
2. Health oversight activities: Our practice may disclose your PHI to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law.
3. Lawsuits and similar proceedings: Our practice may use and disclose your PHI in response to a court or administrative order, if you are involved in a lawsuit or similar proceeding. We also may disclose your PHI in response to a discovery request, subpoena or other lawful process by another party involved in the dispute, but only if we have made an effort to inform you of the request or to obtain an order protecting the information the party has requested.
4. Law enforcement: We may release PHI if asked to do so by law enforcement official:
  - Regarding a crime victim in certain situations, if we are unable to obtain the person's agreement.
  - Concerning a death we believe has resulted from criminal conduct.
  - Regarding criminal conduct at our offices.
  - In response to a warrant, summons, court order, subpoena, or similar legal process.
  - To identify/locate a suspect, material witness, fugitive, or missing person.
  - In an emergency, to report a crime (including the location or victim(s) of the crime, or the description, identity or location of the perpetrator).
5. Serious threats to health or safety: Our practice may use and disclose your PHI when necessary to reduce or prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of another individual or the public. Under these circumstances, we will only make disclosures to a person or organization able to help prevent the threat.
6. Military: Our practice may disclose your PHI if you are a member of the U.S. or foreign military forces (including veterans) and if required by the appropriate authorities.
7. National Security: Our practice may disclose your PHI to federal officials for intelligence and national security activities authorized by law. We also may disclose your PHI to federal and national security activities authorized by law. We also may disclose your PHI to federal officials in order to protect the president, other officials or foreign heads of state, or to conduct investigations.

E. Your rights regarding your PHI:

You have the following rights regarding the PHI that we maintain about you:

6. Military: Our practice may disclose your PHI if you are a member of the U.S. or foreign military forces (including veterans) and if required by the appropriate authorities.
7. National Security: Our practice may disclose your PHI to federal officials for intelligence and national security activities authorized by law. We also may disclose your PHI to federal and national security activities authorized by law. We also may disclose your PHI to federal officials in order to protect the president, other officials or foreign heads of state, or to conduct investigations.

E. Your rights regarding your PHI:

You have the following rights regarding the PHI that we maintain about you:

1. Confidential communications: You have the right to request that our practice communicate with you about your health and related issues in a particular manner or at a certain location.
2. Requesting restrictions: You have the right to request a restriction in our use or disclosure of your PHI for treatment, payment, or health care operations. Additionally, you have the right to request that we restrict our disclosure of your PHI to only certain individuals involved in your care or the payment for your care, such as family members and friends. We are not required to agree to your request however, if we do agree, we are bound by our agreement except when otherwise required by law, in emergencies or when the information is necessary to treat you. In order to request a restriction in our use or disclosure of your PHI, you must make your request in writing to EnSite. Your request must describe in a clear concise fashion:
  - The information you wish restricted.
  - Whether you are requesting to limit our practice's use, disclosure or both.
  - To whom you want the limits to apply.
3. Inspection and copies: You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of the PHI that may be used to make decisions about you, including patient medical records and billing record, but not including psychotherapy notes. You must submit your request in writing to EnSite in order to inspect and/or obtain a copy of your PHI. Our practice may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing, labor, and supplies associated with your request. Our practice may deny your request to inspect and/or copy in certain limited circumstances; however, you may request a review of our denial. Another licensed health care professional chosen by us will conduct reviews.
4. Amendment: You may ask us to amend your health information if you believe it is incorrect or incomplete, and you may request and amendment for as long as the information is kept by or for our practice. To request and amendment, your request must be made in writing and submitted to EnSite. You must provide us with a reason that supports your request for amendment. Our practice will deny your request if you fail to submit your request (and the reason supporting your request) in writing. Also, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that is in our opinion: (a) accurate and complete; (b) not part of the PHI kept by or for the practice; (c) not part of the PHI which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or (d) not created by our practice, unless the individual or entity that created the information is not available to amend the information.
5. Right to a paper copy of this notice: You are entitled to receive a paper copy of our notice of privacy practices. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time. To obtain a copy of this notice, contact EnSite.
6. Right to file a complaint: If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with our practice or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. To file a complaint with our practice, contact EnSite. All complaints may be submitted in writing. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint
7. Right to provide and authorization for other uses and disclosures: Our practice will obtain your written authorization for uses and disclosures that are not identified by this notice or permitted by applicable law. Any authorization you provide to us regarding the use and disclosure of your PHI may be revoked at any time in writing. After you revoke your authorization, we will no longer use or disclose your PHI for the reasons described in the authorization. Please note: we are required to retain records of your care.

I hereby acknowledge that I have received the opportunity to ask questions concerning this Notice of Privacy Practices:
